Activity: Occupational therapy's treatment method—1987 Eleanor Clarke Slagle lecture, 41(9):563–575
Comparing ways of measuring constructional praxis in the well elderly, 41(8):500–504
MOTOR PERFORMANCE
Bilateral hand performance with divided attention after a cerebral vascular accident, 41(2):96–101

N

NEEDS SATISFACTION
Intraprofessional team building, 41(9):576–582

NEURODEVELOPMENT
Integrating play in neurodevelopmental treatment, 41(7):421–426

O

OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY SERVICES
AIDS: Guidelines for occupational therapy intervention, 41(7):427–432
OCCUPATION
Altruism and task participation in the elderly, 41(6):379–381
ORGANIZATIONAL OBJECTIVES,
Organization and administration
The 3-hour therapy criterion: A challenge for rehabilitation facilities, 41(5):297–304
ORGANIZATION AND ADMINISTRATION
Art of leading meetings, 41(5):321–326
ORTHOTIC DEVICES
Effects of splinting in the treatment of hand contractures in progressive systemic sclerosis, 41(2):118–121

P

PARENTS
Education
Occupational therapy in mother and child health care centers, 41(9):601–605
PARKINSON'S DISEASE
Therapy
Benefits of group occupational therapy for patients with Parkinson's disease, 41(6):360–365
PATIENT ADVOCACY
Occupational therapist as an expert witness, 41(9):590–594
PATIENT EDUCATION
Effects of body mechanics instruction on work performance, 41(1):16–20
Program for improving energy conservation behaviors in adults with rheumatoid arthritis, 41(2):102–111
PEDIATRICS
Body part identification in 1- to 4-year-old children, 41(7):454–459
Brief or New—Classroom aids for a child with severe upper limb deficiencies, 41(7):467–469
Case Report—Sequential levels in the visual-motor development of a child with cerebral palsy, 41(1):43–49
Evaluating the visual-perceptual skills of children with cerebral palsy, 41(10):646–651
PERCEPTION
Cognitive rehabilitation: A model for occupational therapy, 41(7):439–448
PERCEPTUAL DISORDERS
Assessment
Continued construct validation of the St. Marys CVA Evaluation: Bilateral Awareness Scale, 41(4):242–245
PERCEPTUAL-MOTOR DISORDERS
Comparing ways of measuring constructional praxis in the well elderly, 41(8):500–504
PERSONNEL MANAGEMENT
Beyond the job description: Managing for performance, 41(5):305–309
Intraprofessional team building, 41(9):576–582
Introducing the concept of a corporate culture to the hospital setting, 41(5):310–314
PHILOSOPHY, OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY
Looking Back—The influence of the arts-and-crafts movement on the professional status of occupational therapy, 41(4):248–254
Pragmatism as a foundation for occupational therapy curricula, 41(8):522–525
PHYSICAL DISABILITIES, OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY
Activity: Occupational therapy's treatment method—1987 Eleanor Clarke Slagle lecture, 41(9):563–575
PHYSICAL ENVIRONMENT
Wheelchair accessibility of public buildings in Utica, New York, 41(4):217–221
PHYSICAL RESTRAINT
Vehicular transport safety for the child with disabilities, 41(1):35–42
PLAY THERAPY
Integrating play in neurodevelopmental treatment, 41(7):421–426
POLITICS
Possible effects of a change to master's entry level in occupational therapy, 41(10):658–666
POSITIONING
Effects of adaptive seating devices on the eating and drinking of children with multiple handicaps, 41(2):81–89
POSITIONING EQUIPMENT, THERAPEUTIC
Evaluating the client with physical disabilities for wheelchair seating, 41(11):711–716
POSTURE
Concurrent validity of equilibrium tests in boys with learning disabilities with and without vestibular dysfunction, 41(1):28–34
Seat for premature infants, 41(10):667–671
PREHENSION
Functional hand evaluations: A review, 41(3):158–163
PREVENTIVE HEALTH SERVICES
Occupational therapy in mother and child health care centers, 41(9):601–605
PROBLEM SOLVING
Art of leading meetings, 41(5):321–326
Classroom as clinic: A model for teaching clinical reasoning in occupational therapy education, 41(10):631–637
Conceptual model for the instruction and supervision of treatment planning, 41(6):351–359
PRODUCTIVITY
Productivity analysis, 41(5):285–291
PROFESSIONAL IMAGE
Looking Back—Major themes in occupational therapy: A content analysis of the Eleanor Clarke Slagle lectures, 1955–1985, 41(8):527–531
PROFESSIONAL PRACTICE
Possible effects of a change to master's entry level in occupational therapy, 41(10):658–666
PROFESSIONAL ROLE DELINEATION
Looking Back—The influence of the arts-and-crafts movement on the professional status of occupational therapy, 41(4):248–254
Looking Back—Major themes in occupational therapy: A content analysis of the Eleanor Clarke Slagle lectures, 1955–1985, 41(8):527–531
PROXIMAL INTERPHALANGEAL JOINT
Brief or New—Extension block splinting for the proximal interphalangeal joint, 41(6):389–390
PSYCHOSOCIAL DEVELOPMENT
Affective responses to keeping and not keeping an activity product, 41(3):152–157
Effects of tool scarcity on group climate and affective meaning within the context of a stenciling activity, 41(7):449–453
PUBLIC POLICY
Occupational therapy in mental health: Crisis or opportunity?, 41(8):495–499

REHABILITATION
Cognitive rehabilitation: A model for occupational therapy, 41(7):439–448
Service delivery mechanisms in rehabilitation technology, 41(11):703–710
Using technology to control the environment, 41(11):717–721
REHABILITATION, CARDIAC
Use of leisure time by cardiac patients, 41(9):583–589

REIMBURSEMENT MECHANISMS
The 3-hour therapy criterion: A challenge for rehabilitation facilities, 41(5):297–304
RELAXATION
Effects of deep pressure touch on anxiety, 41(6):366–373
RELAXATION TECHNIQUES
Efficacy of the ROM dance program for adults with rheumatoid arthritis, 41(2):90–95
RESEARCH
Program for improving energy conservation behaviors in adults with rheumatoid arthritis, 41(2):102–111
ROBOTICS
Occupational therapists' views about the use of robotic aids for people with disabilities, 41(11):745–747
ROLE CONFLICT
Role conflict in occupational therapy student parents, 41(1):21–27

S

SAFETY
Vehicular transport safety for the child with disabilities, 41(1):35–42
SCHOOL HEALTH SERVICES
Roles of occupational therapists and occupational therapy assistants in schools, 41(12):798–803
SCHOOLS, OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY
Developing an occupational therapy curriculum at a small college, 41(3):179–183
Roles of occupational therapists and occupational therapy assistants in schools, 41(12):798–803
Standards of practice for occupational therapy services in schools, 41(12):804–808
SCLERODERMA
Effects of splinting in the treatment of hand contractures in progressive systemic sclerosis, 41(2):118–121
SEATS, ADAPTED
Evaluating the client with physical disabilities for wheelchair seating, 41(11):711–716
Vehicular transport safety for the child with disabilities, 41(1):35–42
SELF-CARE
Brief or New—Audiotape instruction of face-washing skills for an adult with mental retardation, 41(3):184–185
Brief or New—The position-adjustable hair dryer, 41(4):246–247
SENSORIMOTOR THERAPY
Using sensorimotor integrative treatment with mentally retarded adults, 41(4):227–231
SENSORY AWARENESS TRAINING
Case Report—Maude: A case of sensory deprivation, 41(10):673–676
SENSORY INTEGRATION
Concurrent validity of equilibrium tests in boys with learning disabilities with and without vestibular dysfunction, 41(1):28–34
Development of manual midline crossing in 2- to 6-year-old children, 41(12):783–789
SENSORY STIMULATION
Case Report—Maude: A case of sensory deprivation, 41(10):673–676
SERVICES, OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY
Benefits of group occupational therapy for patients with Parkinson's disease, 41(6):360–365
Case Report—Community-based occupational therapy with a head-injured adult, 41(7):461–464
Cluster homes: A community for profoundly and severely retarded persons, 41(4):222–226
Computers and occupational therapy, 41(11):726–732
Management of work-related back pain, 41(2):112–117
Occupational therapists' views about the use of robotic aids for people with disabilities, 41(11):745–747
Occupational therapy in mental health: Crisis or opportunity?, 41(8):495–499
Occupational therapy in mother and child health care centers, 41(9):601–605
Occupational therapy program for adults with developmental disabilities, 41(7):433–438
Use of leisure time by cardiac patients, 41(9):583–589
Use of trivial pursuit in teaching community living skills to adults with developmental disabilities, 41(1):10–15
Using sensorimotor integrative treatment with mentally retarded adults, 41(4):227–231
SKILLS, LIVING
Comparing ways of measuring constructional praxis in the well elderly, 41(8):500–504
SLAGLE LECTURES
Activity: Occupational therapy's treatment method—1987 Eleanor Clarke Slagle lecture, 41(9):563–575
SPINAL CORD INJURIES
Occupational therapists' views about the use of robotic aids for people with disabilities, 41(11):745–747
SPLINTS, ELBOW
Dynamic elbow extension splint, 41(12):825–826
SPLINTS, FINGER
Brief or New—A dynamic traction splint for the management of extrinsic tendon tightness, 41(2):123–125
Brief or New—Extension block splinting for the proximal interphalangeal joint, 41(6):389–390
SPLINTS, HAND
Cluster homes: A community for profoundly and severely retarded persons, 41(4):222–226
Effects of splinting in the treatment of hand contractures in progressive systemic sclerosis, 41(2):118–121
STANDARDS, OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY
Standards of practice for occupational therapy services in schools, 41(12):804–808
STUDENT RECRUITMENT
Ability of professional programs in occupational therapy to accommodate the older student, 41(6):382–387
Recruitment of occupational therapy students: A national survey, 41(3):173–178
STUDENTS, OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY
Ability of professional programs in occupational therapy to accommodate the older student, 41(6):382–387
Recruitment of occupational therapy students: A national survey, 41(3):173–178

TEACHING METHODS
Conceptual model for the instruction and supervision of treatment planning, 41(6):351–359
TECHNICS, OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY
Effects of deep pressure touch on anxiety, 41(6):366–373
TECHNOLOGY
Brief or New—A master's degree program in occupational therapy with a rehabilitation technology focus, 41(11):749–752
Comparison of the use of adaptive microswitches by students with cerebral palsy, 41(11):739–744
Occupational therapists' views about the use of robotic aids for people with disabilities, 41(11):745–747
Scanning computer access system for children with severe physical disabilities, 41(11):733–738
Service delivery mechanisms in rehabilitation technology, 41(11):703–710
Using technology to control the environment, 41(11):717–721
TENDON INJURIES
Tendon gliding exercises, 41(3):164–167
TEST, BY TITLE
Cognition
Test of Visual-Perceptual Skills, 41(12):790–797

Developmental
Bayley Scales of Infant Development, 41(6):374–378
Psychosocial
Role Activity Performance Scale, 41(4):232–241
BaFPE, 41(8):515–521
Sensorimotor
St. Marys CVA Evaluation: Bilateral Awareness Scale, 41(4):242–245
TESTS,
Developmental
Relationship between the Bayley Scales of Infant Development and preschool gross motor and cognitive performance, 41(6):374–378
Psychosocial
Developing a role activity performance scale, 41(4):232–241
Validating a test of functional performance with psychiatric patients, 41(8):515–521
TEST STANDARDS
Validating a test of functional performance with psychiatric patients, 41(8):515–521
TOUCH
Effects of deep pressure touch on anxiety, 41(6):366–373
TREATMENT PLANNING
Conceptual model for the instruction and supervision of treatment planning, 41(6):351–359
